

GED & ACADEMICS

Contact CALA

To book an assessment or to register for a program.

902-895-2468

contactcala@gocala.ca

REGISTER NOW

For our Fall 2022 GED Prep, Math and Communications adult learning programs.

Intro to GED and Online Tools

Sept 26 – Nov 1, Nov 7 – Dec 6, & Dec 12 – Jan 24.

This 12-session program is designed to help adults prepare for success with writing the GED test modules.

Intro to GED and Online Tools offers a positive introduction to:

- Discover the 5 GED test modules
- Manage your learning
- Develop study habits
- Use interactive learning tools
- Navigate online learning systems

Math

Sept 29 – Oct 20, Oct 27 – Nov 17, & Nov 24 – Dec 22

Math Readiness for home, school, and work. Our Math programs focus on number sense, consumer math, measurements, statistics and probabilities, fractions, decimals, and everyday math.

Communications

Sept 30 – Oct 22, Oct 28 – Nov 18, & Nov 25 – Dec 23

Communication skills for home, school, and work. Our Communications programs will assist you in reading comprehension, writing skills and strategies, responding to media and text, listening and speaking.

About CALA

The Colchester Adult Learning Association (CALA) is a community-based organization dedicated to providing opportunities for all adults to pursue their learning goals. Our programs are offered free to adults in Colchester County.

Meet Your Instructor

David Boehm, BA, BEd

David has been with CALA since 2013 when he started as a volunteer. He is the GED and academic instructor and also takes the lead on many outreach projects.

