Colchester Adult Learning Association

Colchester Adult Learning Association (CALA) is a community-based organization dedicated to providing opportunities for all adults to pursue their learning goals. CALA helps adults in Truro and Colchester County improve their academic skills in reading, writing, and math to prepare for work or further education including GED prep and other training programs.
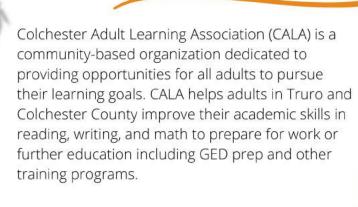

CALA also offers essential skills programming in the areas of digital literacy, communications, finding and using information, managing learning, and engaging with others. CALA programs follow the Nova Scotia School of Adult Learning's (NSSAL) E3: Education, Essential Skills, Empowerment curriculum framework.
